2018 Reaffirmation Project

The University of Texas at Dallas (UT Dallas) continued to participate as a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (the Commission) and developed this project website to share its review of the University's progress toward compliance with The Principles of Accreditation. "Accreditation by SACS Commission on Colleges signifies that the institution (1) has a mission appropriate to higher education, (2) has resources, programs, and services sufficient to accomplish and sustain that mission, and (3) maintains clearly specified educational objectives that are consistent with its mission and appropriate to the degrees it offers, and that indicate whether it is successful in achieving its stated objectives." [Principles of Accreditation, 2012, p. 1]

This website includes links to the 2018 Reaffirmation Project, and to the previous projects, the 2014 Fifth-Year Interim Report, and the 2007 Reaffirmation Project. Supporting documentation was referenced within the written text and at the end of each compliance certification. Documents containing sensitive information remain encrypted and require approved access; other documents are publicly available.
